

LISA HERBOLD

EXPERIENCE

January 2016 - Current
City Councilmember, District 1, West Seattle and South Park, City of Seattle

- Helped craft and pass public policy that includes Paid Sick Leave for the 190,000 Seattle workers who didn't have it, a Rental Housing Inspection Program for 250,000 renter households, and the pilot project for LEAD, an acclaimed criminal justice diversion program.

January 1998 – December 2015
Legislative Aide, The Office Of Councilmember Nick Licata, City Council, City of Seattle

- Policy analysis, development, and implementation, project management, constituent and press relations, annual newsletter editor, and scheduling.

May 1997 – November 1997
Campaign Coordinator, People for Nick Licata

- Responsible for coordination of all aspects of campaign, from volunteer recruitment and supervision, event planning, press relations, strategy and tactics, and materials development.

Spring 1993 – May 1997
Tenant Organizer, Seattle Tenants' Union

- Staffed a statewide tenants' rights hotline, conducted trainings for advocacy organizations on tenants' rights, bringing groups of tenants together in their buildings towards collective action on issues of common concern whether focused upon changes to their individual tenancy or towards larger policy changes.

Summer 1992 – Spring 1993
Lead Organizer, Association for Community Organization for Reform Now (ACORN)

- Managed, with the Head Organizer, all aspects of launching a new Seattle office and from the ground up, building a staff, organizational infrastructure, and a membership base where there had been none.

Fall 1989 – Summer 1992
Southside Organizer, Syracuse United Neighbors (SUN)

- Responsible for managing membership group of 400 individuals, monthly and bi-monthly meetings, as well as neighborhood issue-based campaigns, including press relations and leadership development.

Spring 1989 – Fall 1989
Canvass Director, Syracuse New York Public Interest Research Group (NYPIRG)

- Hired, trained, and supervised canvassing staff of ~ 20 as well as managing all aspects of the summer canvass, from maintaining financial records, on-going reporting to State headquarters, to managing the day-to-day operations of a busy office.

VOLUNTEER

Board of Directors
Homestead Community Land Trust (1997 - 1999), Young Adult Independent Living Program (1998 – 2000), Neighborhood House 2004-2006, The Tenants Union 2006 – 2010

EDUCATION

1984-1989
Syracuse University, Political Science/Journalism